Students who have lost their eligibility for financial aid due to lack of satisfactory academic progress may appeal for reinstatement of their eligibility if circumstances beyond their control prevented them from meeting the established standards.

To appeal, submit the requested information below that pertains to your situation. Your responses should be provided on separate paper and attached to this form with supporting documentation.

1. Provide your own statement describing the reasons and the circumstances that caused you to fail to meet the required standards. It is important that you demonstrate a clear and thorough understanding of why you experienced academic difficulties so that you will be able to take sufficient steps in the future to improve your academic performance and meet the prescribed standards. Be specific in your explanation since incomplete information may cause a delay in the review of your appeal or a denial of your request. REQUIRED
2. Provide a second statement outlining the specific steps you intend to take in the next semester to improve your academic performance. This statement should be thorough and detailed, demonstrating your commitment to achieving the required grade point average and/or percentage of completed credits. REQUIRED
3. Attach documentation that supports your appeal. If, for example, the deficiency was caused by medical problems or personal injury, provide supporting evidence from a physician or hospital. Other forms of documentation might include a letter from a counselor or therapist, copy of obituary or death certificate in the case of the death of a family member, etc. OPTIONAL
4. Provide an unofficial copy of your current UACCM transcript, and copies of transcripts from any previously attended institutions (this may be obtained from the Registrar's Office). Also, provide a copy of your schedule for your semester, if this information is not reflected on your transcript. REQUIRED
