NEW CHANCELLOR AT UACCM

After 25 years, Nathan Crook retired June 30 as UACCM’s Chancellor. Dr. Larry Davis will be the next Chancellor beginning Sept. 16.

Dr. Davis has many years of experience in community college administration and instruction. He is currently the Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs at Arkansas State University-Newport. He has held this position for six years. He also served as an instructor, department head and division chair during his 31 years at Oklahoma State University Institute of Technology – Okmulgee.

UACCM is positive that Dr. Davis will bring new and exciting ideas to the college. He has extensive experience in workforce development, played an instrumental role in establishing the state’s first high voltage lineman program at ASU-Newport, and has served for the last 18 years as a consultant-evaluator for the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association.

Davis earned his bachelor’s degree in mathematics from East Central State College (Ada, Okla.), and his master’s and doctoral degrees in occupational and adult education from Oklahoma State University.

UACCM NOW OFFERING CLEP TESTING
